L'ORÉAL PARIS

Successful Women Owning The Stage

Some women don't just live their lives, they transform the lives of everyone around them. In the heart of Beirut, against the timeless backdrop of Roi Des Pins, L'Oréal Paris, the world's No. 1 beauty brand, brought together an elegant evening dedicated to honoring those women.

Women of Worth goes far beyond a beauty brand's promise. Our event shines a spotlight on women who stand as true beacons of hope, leaders redefining what's possible in advocacy, business, inspiring young women, humanitarian work, and sport.

We've curated an Oscars-style gala to celebrate not only glamour, but also grit, vision, and the kind of courage that quietly reshapes communities.

Celebrating Radiance

The L'Oréal Paris Women of Worth celebration at Résidence des Rois unfolds as a luminous journey of empowerment, where guests enter through a grand black-and-gold archway and move along candlelit reflective pathways toward an elegant registration pavilion glowing with chandeliers and white florals. The evening culminates in a breathtaking outdoor stage framed by gold accents and soft amber lighting, with honorees celebrated against the majestic backdrop of the residence. Surrounded by refined black-and-gold dining settings, shimmering candles, and elevated brand touches, the event embodies the radiance, strength, and worth of every woman, delivering a cinematic, luxurious, and deeply emotional tribute to their achievements.
